

Needs for Mother's Day

1. Funding
2. Groceries (large cans of ravioli or stew; instant coffee)
3. Gift sets (soaps, body sprays, powders)
4. Small vases for children to use for gifting
5. Clean artificial flowers
6. Misc. small gifts for children to use for gifting to moms

A Sign of the Times

LEFT: Jerry (Pastor Haskle's brother) helps Rae Jean unload donations out of her car at the Rancho Cordova warehouse.

More and more DTM is depending upon supporters to deliver items to either Rancho or, in some cases, directly to the recipient family.

Many of the ministry's contributors have needed to cutback on giving financially due to cost of living increases. Thus, the ministry needs to cut back on expenses too, including truck and fuel costs.

Thank you for all you can do!

Hey, Checkout our new website!

It is now up and running.

Go to www.hungryhomeless.com

You can log on today!

We've just begun! We're working towards a full range of information so you can learn more about our ministries to homeless mothers and children. You'll be able to see more photos and read more stories about the needy and poor that your loving gifts help sustain. You'll be able to see the ministry in action on location.

Soon to be included:

Back articles of DTM's news. View thousands of faces of the poor and homeless.
Photo galleries, archives, who we are, what we do, and a blog.

Now: You can donate online through Paypal. Just click the donate box. And, when you click on the Google ads, Google pays the ministry a few cents.

So tell your friends, church and fellow co-workers about this important ministry. Ask them to go to:

www.hungryhomeless.com